The honor of Ireland is not inagreement arrived at. Our plenipotentiaries were appointed on the dis-tinct understanding that any agreement they made was subject to rati-fication by the Dail Eireann and by the country and could be rejected by the Dail Eireann if it would not commend itself to the Dail, or by the country if it did not commend itself "the country."

The Parliament of Great Britain and the people of Great Britain will on their side similarly consider the agreement solely on its merits. It the British Parliament desires it can reject it, so can the British people. Ratification is then no mere empty

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HIREAID.

New York Heraid Bureau. Washington, D. C., Dec. 12. ESPITE the opposition of a few irreconcilables, led by Sen ators Borah and Reed, a poll of the Senate to-day by THE NEW YORK HERALD indicated clearly that the four Power Pacific treaty will be ratified by the Senate by a safe margin.

Convinced that the treaty is a long step toward the preservation peace, in that it provides ways and means of amicable settlement of perplexing problems in the Pacific, fifty-five Senators, just nine less than are needed for ratification, gave their unqualified indorsement to-day to the agreement. While there were twenty Senators who refused to commit themselves on the proposition, a large pronortion of that group indicated that in all probability they will vote

By LOUIS SEIBOLD.

New York Heraid Bureau. Washington, D. C., Dec. 12. Announcement to-day that four treaties which are to result from pending negotiations have been agreed upon has prepared delegates and officials for the closing of the most important international con ference ever held. The rapidity with which the snarls of misunderstandings in international fabrics are being unravelled encourages the belief that the conference of Powers called by President Harding will have made such progress during the present week that new charter for the conduct of world affairs will have been completely written by Christmas. The major problems already have been settled, or are about to be. It appears to be merely a matter of days before the treaties upon which the delegates are working will have been agreed upon and reduced to concret

Principal Accomplishments. The accomplishments in this line to date are: A Pacific four Power treaty, to be signed at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning by the delegates of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, and sent to the Senate for ratification, which from THE NEW YORK HERALD poll, taken to-day, appears to be as sured A treaty between the United States and Japan accepting the reservations stipulated by this country and conferring upon it islands north of the equator, including Yap, awarded to Japan by the Versailles Treaty, but not imposing any obligations or responsibilities on the United States. The internal instruments in process of development but apparently certain of acceptance, are: A treaty on the part of the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan accepting the terms of the Hughes formula for the limitation of sea armaments, the momentary obstacle to which are the demands of Great Britain for a minimum submarine tonnage and the continued insistence of France for a maximum of capital ships and auxiliary tonnage (including submarines) which Italy is ready to waive if France will modify her claims in this respect. A nine Power agreement containing a new "bill of rights" for China that will enable her to organize a functioning stable goverament and which has been chiefly obstructed to date by China and Japan failing to agree on terms of settlement over Shantody in Calcutta, where what is termed gestion has come. Perhaps the most as tonishing feature of the whole submarine discussion has come from the fact that another great nation seems to oppose the proposition, and that is France.

"Not a single one of the instruments with which these four poison gas, or any of that kind of instrument, is to be touched by the conference, but they are to be left as the instruments with which these four powers are in the future to conduct war in case they should fight among themselves or against any one eige.

"I trust, therefore, that before the solution of the street which were conduct war in case the proposition and proposed that the disturbances incident to the grant any one eige.

I trust, therefore, that before the solutions of these worked out by the "Big Three."
